

2009 Spring Vale Gewürztraminer, $28 CD

SPRING Vale is one of a handful of Tasmanian producers that has remained loyal to Alsace's noble gewürztraminer. Many others have tried and failed, but this East Coast producer continues to refine its distinctive and wildly exotic interpretation. The 2009 is wonderfully floral and heady, with genuine weight, length and texture on the palate. It's clearly among the property's best vintages to date. Taste at Hobart's White Wine Weekend.
